

Online Self-Learning Made Easy

The Alberta College of Family Physicians is pleased to introduce to you its online continuing professional development (CPD) offering, GoMainpro.

GoMainpro is an online learning platform where you can earn certified credits for ACFP's Tools for Practice library and ACFP's Video Library from past events (Family Medicine Summit and Practical Evidence for Informed Practice conferences).

Simply read a Tools for Practice article or watch a video and reflect on your learning experience to earn credits—we'll do the rest. It is that easy!

Earn Up to 79 Certified Credits And We'll Report Them For You!

The ACFP is the first chapter to develop an online learning solution that is convenient and simple. Once you have purchased your annual subscription, you will have access to both our certified and non-certified content libraries. Simply reflect on your learning and we will report your certified credits for you.

EASY SIGN UP

Sign up to create a user account and purchase your annual subscription.

1

Be sure you use your chapter promo code to save. Contact gomainpro@acfp.ca for more details.

READ AND REFLECT

Once you have read a Tools for Practice article or watched a Video, simply launch a reflective exercise to assess your learning. GoMainpro will capture your responses and track the credits you earned.

2

CAPTURING AND TRACKING

After completing the reflective exercise, close the window and visit My Dashboard to show the credits you've earned.

3

REPORTING

The combination of the CFPC's Direct Entry Program and GoMainpro's tracking and reporting features provide an easy and convenient way to earn certified Self-Learning credits.

Credits earned on the Tools for Practice/GoMainpro solution will be submitted to the CFPC's Direct Credit Entry Program on May 31 annually. You will receive confirmation directly from the CFPC by email.
